Arvada is steeped in Colorado history. Established in 1870 with 100 citizens, it now boasts roughly 123,436 according to the latest 2022 data from the US census. Its roots however traces back to June of 1850 when Lewis Ralston struck gold becoming the first documented strike that led to the Gold Rush of 1859 in Colorado. Arvada was also the birthplace of the King Soopers chain, with Lloyd J. King opening his first grocery store in 1947. Arvada has shown throughout its long history that this city finds those veins of wealth yearly. Maybe it's time for you, as well, to find a golden opportunity with the purchase of this property as an investment on your future.

SUMMARY OF STABILITY

Since this medical/office two-story development was first constructed in 1974, 12001 West 63rd Place has seen growth in the surrounding areas expanding into varied medical enterprises attracting doctors, medical clinics, labs and urgent care facilities to meet the demands of a growing population over the many decades. With the growth of Arvada, in general, the needs for maintaining the health of its populations has grown exponentially. As well, corporations in more recent years have found similar needs to expand their operations into the area. Forty-nine years later, 12001 West 63rd Pl is still functioning well enough to have secured a 100 percent leased capacity to continue to fulfill the needs of the surrounding populations in the areas of Arvada and neighboring communities.

We would like to offer you an invitation to come see what this property can hold for you as a potential investment and best of all, the seller is willing to do an owner carry. Please give one of our brokers a call so that we may arrange a time to help you meet your goals. Thank you.
