Area Summary

The Citadel Mall is one of the largest southern Colorado retail centers, boasting nearly 1.1 million square feet and home to Dillard's, JCPenny, Burlington Coat Factory and Sportsman's Warehouse, as well as 130 specialty shops and boutiques. Since its first day of opening, this large indoor mall has shown a resilience throughout the many decades of a consistent flow of loyal repeat customers from both near and afar.

This center is centrally located northwest of Platte and Academy Boulevards, just a few short minutes from downtown, and situated as well in the foot of the Rocky Mountains which draws more than six million visitors annually to Colorado Springs. Further, Fort Carson, the city's largest military base, is fifteen miles from the Citadel. The city is also home to the Air Force Academy, Peterson Air Force and Schriever Air Force Bases.

Currently Citadel Mall has inline spaces for lease from 500 sf to 6,000 sf. We also have restaurant spaces and Drive Thru options available, as well as Pad Sites. Please contact our brokers for further information.

Sister Malls

Citadel Mall was the first of two sister indoor malls constructed and first opened in 1972, while her younger sister, Chapel Hills Mall, opened only ten years later and nine miles away. Both were conceived to satisfy targeted demographics to meet individual demands of the needs of those shoppers back then as much as they are needed now.
